
Paul Lobb

(National Policing Improvement Agency)

will talk on

Crime scene assessment and the behavioural analysis of crime.

Tuesday, April 22nd, 6:30pm onwards

Millfield School (Street, Som.), Concert Hall

A unique opportunity to hear national police criminal behaviour analyst Paul Lobb speak on the past, present and future of forensic psychological profiling - a topic relevant to most specifications from September, 2008.

Followed by dinner with Paul at Millfield (7:45-9:00) and optional drinks at The Bear Inn (9:00 onwards).

£10.00

Valuable CPD and outstanding value for money.

- | | |
|------------------------|-------------------------|
| ψ Subject update | ψ Networking |
| ψ Shared good practice | ψ Student career advice |

Reply before 11th April to guarantee a place.

George Smith (Millfield)
0775 446 0540
gbs@millfieldschool.com

Claire Barker (Wells CS)
07749 845 218
c.barker@wells-cathedral.school.com

Sponsored by the Association for the Teaching of Psychology
www.theatp.org